

HELP AT THE HUB

Find FREE ADVICE on a wide range of money, health and safety matters.

THURSDAY, 15 FEBRUARY 2024

Anyone looking for help and support on a range of money, health and safety matters, is welcome to come along to an open day in Penn this month.

Help at the Hub will see a wide variety of city organisations offer free advice and information to residents. The event will take place on Thursday 15 February in the red room at Penn Bowling and Social Club, Manor Road, WV4 5PY, between 10am and 2pm.

The event has been organised by officers at City of Wolverhampton Council's Public Protection Scams Team who will be handing out free scams awareness and prevention packs.

Representatives from Admiral Nurses, Aquarius, Citizens Advice Bureau, Compton Care, the council's Cost of Living Advisors, Neighbourhood Safety Co-ordinator, Pohwer, Public Protection, SUIT, Waste Services, Wolverhampton College, Wolves Foundation and Wolves at Work will be available on the day.

Residents may have concerns about a number of issues and there will be people on hand who can help out. Please join us on 15 February for a chat about your worries and to find support.”

People do not have to book an appointment but are asked to please be prepared to wait if the event is busy.
