

Croc and Bird by Zaidan Year 3

In a little forest were two white eggs (a crocodile and a bird). The bird egg hatched very loudly and the crocodile egg popped out. Then the crocodile said "I'm hungry," and the bird said "Brother." They were hungry so bird said "Open your mouth so the Mother bird will come." But it took a long time so Croc went to hunt but he had never seen food before so he got a selection of food.

Bird and Croc grew up together and Bird had feathers and Croc had scales. Bird said, "I've got lots of new feathers." Croc said "I've got new scales." They always practised flying, swimming and dancing together.

One day, when they were hunting a wave came and carried them to a wonderful lake full of green crocodiles. Next to the lake there was a wonderful forest of blue birds. Then Bird said "we were so silly because we thought we were Brothers."

Croc said "It's time to say good bye." So Croc and Bird went to their family.

One stormy night, Bird refused to sing with his blue bird family so he flew to Croc who was in a brown nest. Then they went to sleep and both said "good night."